

Alice Elshoff
Steens Mountain Road
Frenchglen, OR 97736

Interest: Recognized Environmental Representative for the Local Area

Occupation: President of Malheur Wildlife Association

Ms. Elshoff is active in Steens protection issues and resides on Steens Mountain. She was actively involved in the process leading up to the establishment of the Steens Mountain Cooperative Management and Protection Act of 2000. She is currently involved with the Oregon Natural Desert Association as a founding member and is President of the Malheur Wildlife Associates. She is a past member of the Deschutes County Waste Management Advisory Council and the Deschutes National Forest Advisory Council which dealt with highly contentious issues in an attempt to achieve collaborative solutions.